TODAY'S GAME

THE GAME: Today's Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference game features the Cowboys of New Mexico Highlands University and the Tigers of Fort Hays State University. The Cowboys enter the game with a record of 3-6, 1-5 in the RMAC while the Tigers are 4-3 on the season and 2-4 in league play.

THE SERIES: NMHU has won the last four meetings to tie the series at 5-5. The Cowboys won last year's game played in Las Vegas, N.M. 45-19.

THE COACHES: Jeff Leiker is in his third season of directing the FHSU football program. The Washburn University graduate is 12-18 at FHSU since taking over the program prior to the 1998 season. Cowboys head coach Steve DaPrato, a graduate of California State Sacramento, is 3-6 in his first year of running the NMHU football program.

NEW MEXICO HIGHLANDS UNIVERSITY: The NMHU offense is averaging 17.7 points and 247.7 yards per game, 99.2 yards on the ground and 148.4 yards through the air. The Cowboys are eighth in the RMAC in total offense. Freshman quarterback Daniel DaPrato, the coach's son, has completed 97-of-232 passes for 1,218 yards and 5 touchdowns but has thrown 13 interceptions. His favorite target has been fullback John Davis who has caught 20 passes for 88 yards and 2 touchdowns. Flankers Robbie Castillo and H.R. Lugo have 19 and 14 receptions respectively but have yet to score a touchdown. A total of 12 different receivers have caught a pass for the Cowboys this season. Junior halfback Louis Hinchey leads the running game with 649 yards, an average of 72.1 yards per game. Hinchey has scored 4 touchdowns on the year.

Defensively the Cowboys are allowing 360.9 yards per contest which ranks sixth in the RMAC, 130.6 yards on the ground and 230.3 yards in the passing game. Linebackers Buddy Boissiere and Mark Chavez top the team with 79 and 78 tackles respectively. Boissiere has 26 tackles for losses totaling 133 yards of which 19 are quarterback sacks that have resulted in 124 yards in losses. Free safety John Collier has 70 tackles on the year. The Cowboys have intercepted nine passes on the season and cornerback Isaac Carter leads the team with three.

Junior Justin Levine handles both the punting and place-kicking duties. Levine is ranked in the top 15 in NCAA II and is averaging 40.4 yards per punt attempt. On the year he has made 12-of-17 field goals and 15-of-17 extra points. His 1.3 field goals per game ranks sixth in NCAA II. Castillo is the Cowboys top kickoff and punt returner. He is averaging 23.5 yards per kickoff return and 8.2 yards per punt return.

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY: Junior quarterback Jason Brown is directing a Tiger offensive unit that is averaging 355.6 yards per game, 154.9 yards rushing and 200.8 yards per game passing. FHSU ranks fourth in total offense, third in rushing offense and fifth in pass offense in the RMAC. Brown has completed 124-of-260 passes for 1,606 yards and 16 touchdowns. Redshirt freshman Beau Rebel leads the active players with 22 receptions for 327 yards. Rebel caught his first touchdown pass as a Tiger a week ago. Three other FHSU receivers have double figure catches: Ben Gray(20-327yds, 4TD's), Fred Shepherd(17-182yds, 4TD's) and Andre Freeman(13-161yds,TD). Freeman, a sophomore, had his first career touchdown reception last Saturday. Errol Bowen(392yds,4TD's), Vinny Walker(231yds, 2TD's), Derek Wright(219yds,TD) and Shawn Smith(103yds) have shared the tailback duties. Seniors Thane Van Eaton(173yds,TD) and Clint Merritt(131yds,TD) have split time at fullback this season. Tight end Brendon Pishny, tackles Patrick Corcoran, Elmer Tarver and Allen Keilers, guards Darin Holovach, Lee Weber and Tyler Strong, along with centers Kyle Johnson and Chad Adams have comprised the offensive line the majority of the 2000 season.

The Tiger defensive unit ranks second in the RMAC allowing 294.9 yards per game, 190.2 through the air and just 104.6 yards on the ground. FHSU has the best run defense in the league and rank 14th in NCAA II. Junior safety Marc Henry leads the team with 53 tackles. Henry is tied with Michael Sanders for the team lead with two interceptions. Linebacker Josh Simonson is second on the squad with 48 tackles. Defensive tackle Casey Seyfert and defensive end Jason Pietrzyk rank first and second on the team with 13 and 11 tackles for loss. Seyfert and Pietrzyk are also one, two in quarterback sacks with 5.5 and 3.5 respectively. FHSU has intercepted six passes on the year led by Henry and Sanders with two each. Sanders' two interceptions came in last weeks game.

Tiger senior punter Adam Ryan was honored as the RMAC Special Teams Player of the Week for his play in the Western State game. Ryan leads NCAA II in punting averaging 43.5 yards per punt. He has made 5-of-7 field goals and 22-of-27 extra points on the year. Sanders is the Tigers primary return specialist averaging 29 yards per kickoff return to rank second in the RMAC and is averaging 12 yards per punt return.
